OR

Paraphrase the following lines into simple English with reference to the context:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;

Ans Reference:

These lines have been taken from the poem, "Daffodils" written by William Wordsworth.

Context:

The poet expresses the feelings of joy and pleasure, when he enjoys the sight of daffodils growing on the side of a lake. The sight leaves a permanent effect on his memory. Whenever he is alone and relaxing on his couch, he begins to think of those daffodils and then he feels extremely happy.

Explanation:

The poet is very much impressed with the natural beauty of the flowers. He says that whenever he is lying on his couch in his vacant or thoughtful mood, the beautiful sight appears before him. The scene of flowers that he saw on the lake comes in front of his eyes and this makes his heart joyful. It is a blessing of being alone.

OR

Write a story with the moral "Union is Strength".

Ans

"Union is Strength"

An old man had three sons. They always quarrelled with one another. The old man tried to improve their relations but all in vain.

At last, the old man fell ill. He was nearly on his deathbed. All the sons gathered around his bed. He asked them to bring a bundle of sticks. They obeyed him. He then asked them one by one to break the bundle. Everyone of them tried his best but to no purpose.

The old man smiled at their failure. He asked them to untie the bundle and break the sticks one by one. It was quite easy now. Even the youngest son broke the sticks easily. The old man called his sons nearer and said, "Union is Strength". The words were very few but they had good effect upon them. They began to live in peace and love with one another after his death. They began to enjoy a pleasant and respectful life.

Moral:

- (i) Union is Strength.
- (ii) United you stand, divided you fall.
